Why are you not angry? We're fing angry. The world is being turned into a
rich mans
playground at our expense. We are in this together but have allowed
ourselves to be ripped in two. Our world has been turned upside down
for no reason other than a power grab
by inhuman scum
who couldn't care
one bit for your
wellbeing. Do you get it yet? You should be angry. We need to stand together, show our strength and not let the bastards tear us
apart. Join Darwin

and The Finches and tell the world you're not going to take it
any longer. Shout it
from the rooftops, Shout it with every
fibre of your being.
You are not alone,
we are in it
together.
