

Frank Griffith Jazz

Name: Frank Griffith Jazz

Gallery:

Audio:

Bio:

Born in Eugene, Oregon in 1959,
Frank lived in New York City from 1980-1995. While there he worked with Ron Carter, Jon Hendricks and Jack McDuff and played lead alto with the Glenn Miller
Orchestra for a nationwide tour in 1984. He has also worked with the orchestras of
Toshiko Akiyoshi,
Mel Lewis, Buddy
Rich and Mel Torme. He has recorded with guitarist/singer John Pizzarelli on his CD's All Of Me and Naturally and produced and

arranged for guitarist, Dave Stryker's
Steeplechase CD Nomad.

As a renowned jazz saxophonist and clarinettist, Frank Griffith has been performing for over 40 years, primarily in New York and London. He has also achieved great acclaim as an arranger, composing for a number of
well-known singers
and musicians for over 30 years. More recently Frank has proved himself as a successful educator,
teaching in both the USA and UK.

Now living in Liverpool, Frank continues to perform across the North West, UK and Europe.

Current Location

Liverpool, England

Influences

John Dankworth, Joe
Henderson, Lester
Young, Duke
Ellington, Bill
Holman, Bob Brookmeyer, The Beatles, Steely Dan, Burt Bacharach and Jim Pepper

WEBSITE